ELECTIVES AND CONCENTRATIONS

Current concentrations are:

- Organizational leadership and development – 10 credit hours
- Health care management – 10 credit hours
- Nonprofit administration – 11-12 credit hours

Examples of elective course options include:

- Developing leaders in organizations
- Spirituality and values in organizations
- Health information technology
- Developing annual sustainability
- Technology and marketing trends in fundraising
- Social entrepreneurship
- Cost management and control

Students can select a concentration area, or take a mixture of 10 credit hours across all three concentration areas to receive a Master of Arts in management without a concentration.

For a full list of courses within each concentration area, visit rockhurst.edu/ma.
PROFESSIONAL COACHING AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT
At the beginning of the program, you are paired with a professional coach to create a development plan and establish goals. Mentoring from alumni, faculty and regional executives is also available.

Your experience ends with a capstone course, providing a practical, hands-on application of program knowledge. Within this capstone, you will partner with a local business to solve a real-world issue.

ENROLLMENT INFORMATION
After submitting your application and transcripts, you will meet with the director of graduate business advising to map out a personalized schedule.

This flexible schedule is built based on your graduation timeline and selected electives.

With five points of entry, you may begin the program in January, March, June, August or October.

THE ADMISSION PROCESS
Apply for the Master of Arts in management program in three easy steps.

1. Complete an application for admission.

2. Submit your official transcripts for all undergraduate and graduate coursework evidencing conferral of a bachelor’s degree. Electronic transcripts may be sent to jennifer.plaster@rockhurst.edu. Official transcripts can be mailed to:

   Rockhurst University
   Graduate Business Programs
