Campus Ministry

Please join us as we remember the Jesuit Martyrs of El Salvador who were killed 20 years ago today, Nov. 16, 1989.

- Today, Nov. 16, noon, Mabee Chapel: Mass of Remembrance and conclusion of the Martyr's Novena. We will pray for those of the Rockhurst community who have lost loved ones during the past year and all the names in the Book of Remembrance.
- Thursday, Nov. 19 – Monday, Nov. 23: Ignatian Family Teach-In/School of Americas Protest Pilgrimage.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will begin at 9:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16, and continue until 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 18, in Mabee Chapel. We encourage you to use this time of private prayer as an opportunity to intentionally rest and pray in Christ's loving, peaceful presence.

Pasta and Prayer: join us for Mass at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow, Nov. 17, in Mabee Chapel. Our celebrant will be Fr. Lou McCabe, S.J., Vocation Director for the Jesuits of the Missouri Province. Dinner will be served after Mass at the CMC.

UNITY will hold elections for their E-Board positions for the 2010 calendar year at 9 p.m. tomorrow, Nov. 17, at the CMC. Foo's Fabulous Frozen Custard will be catered in to celebrate the new E-Board and to thank the outgoing leadership team.

VOICES for JUSTICE activities and information:

- Tomorrow, Nov. 17, 7 p.m.-Massman 248: Rethink Iraq. Rockhurst's own Iraq War veteran Adam Clark will speak about his enlistment and personal experience in Iraq. Come hear a new perspective and taste authentic Iraqi cuisine.
- Thursday, Nov. 19: (The regular meeting has been cancelled.) Participants in the SOA/Ignatian Family Teach-In Pilgrimage please meet in front of McGee at 6:30 p.m. to load the bus, which departs at 7 p.m. sharp. Contact Bill Kriege if you have any questions.

Announcements

The RDN will not be published during Thanksgiving break. It will resume Monday, Nov. 30. Please have your announcement submitted by 9 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 24, for that issue.

Do you like writing plays? Would you like to see something you've written performed on stage? If so, you are invited to submit a short play to Theatreworks, an annual showcase of student written shows that happens every spring semester. To be considered your play must be:

- Between 5-10 pages
- Submitted by Saturday, Nov. 21
- In proper play format

For details or to submit a play contact Erin Scott at scottg@hawks.rockhurst.edu.

$3 Movie Night is Wednesday, Nov. 18, at the Plaza Cinemark. Purchase your tickets in the SAB Box during lunch and dinner. You must bring your ticket and your student ID to the theater. Tickets will not be sold at the theater.

Midwest Poets Series presents one of the country's pre-eminent poets Mary Jo Bang to read her work at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16, in Mabee Theater. Many critics compare her style to that of Emily Dickinson, where both writers often render the same ambiguous feelings. "The poet doubts the redemptive power of her own gift," writes David Orr in The New York Times in discussing Bang's elegies, "while simultaneously using it to find a tone that – in the final line- wavers perfectly between her contempt for consolation and her desire for it." The Rockhurst community is admitted free.

Phi Sigma Tau (philosophy honor society) presents Sr. Rosemary Flannigan, Ph.D., Tuesday, Nov. 17. Please join us at 7 p.m. in the Finucane Jesuit Center (lower level of the library) as Sr. Flannigan speaks to students on morality and ethics, with a special focus on end-of-life issues. She is a current member of the Kansas City Bioethics Committee and former Rockhurst professor. For details, please contact Kriegera@hawks.rockhurst.edu or Robert.Vigliotti@rockhurst.edu.

Visiting Scholar Lecture Series brings one of the world's most respected journalists, Jon Lee Anderson, to campus at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 18, in Mabee Theater. Anderson will discuss "The U.S. Dilemma in Afghanistan: Building a Nation or Fighting a War?" Anderson, who writes for The New Yorker, is the author of The Fall of Baghdad, The Lion's Grave: Dispatches from Afghanistan, and Che Guevara. The lecture is free; call ext. 4828 to register your attendance.

Announcing the latest Learning Center contest winner- freshman Tim Dulle collected all 12 writing tutor trading cards and claimed the gift card for free gas. Congratulations Tim!

With finals approaching, check out the Learning Center. The staff can help you with your exam preparation. Come by Van Ackeren 200, call ext. 4052 or learningcenter@rockhurst.edu for more information.

Counseling Center Tip of the Day: Safeguard blocks of work time. Protect your time by saying "no" to interruptions, activities, requests or people. Interruptions are a two-fold problem: the interruption itself and the expectation of further interruptions. Both reduce your effectiveness considerably. For more information on managing your time contact the Counseling Center at 501-4275, Massman 5.
